

Short-trip through authentic Bavaria along the east of the German Alpine Road

7 days / 6 nights
545 km / 338 miles

This short trip takes in the most popular Bavarian sights along the German Alpine Road:

1 Munich, the capital of Bavaria and gateway to the German Alpine Road, the Kehlsteinhaus (Eagle's Nest) in Berchtesgaden, the Winklmoosalm plateau in 2 Reit im Winkl and Mount Zugspitze in 3 Garmisch-Partenkirchen. Arrival and departure via Munich.

Eagle's Nest

My travel experiences in ...

1 Munich – Berchtesgaden 154 km / 96 miles – Reit im Winkl 62 km / 38 miles

Listen to the famous town hall carillon on a stroll across Munich's Marienplatz square; the Hofbräuhaus beer hall on Platzl square is the perfect place for a hearty Bavarian meal; in the afternoon, you can watch surfers riding the waves on the Eisbach river in the English Garden. The following morning, continue by (hire) care along the A8 to Berchtesgaden, where we recommend taking the Kehlstein bus to Kehlsteinhaus, or Eagle's Nest.

2 Reit im Winkl – Garmisch-Partenkirchen 239 km / 148 miles

The Winklmoosalm plateau is the most famous part of Reit im Winkl. During the summer, you can reach this popular walking area with its quaint huts and welcoming Bavarian inns via a toll road or by cable car; explore Lake Chiemsee and Herreninsel island by boat, and visit Herrenchiemsee Palace, built for King Ludwig II in the style of Versailles. The next morning, continue along the German Alpine Road towards Garmisch-Partenkirchen.

3 Garmisch-Partenkirchen – Munich 90 km / 56 miles

Explore the historical sights of Garmisch-Partenkirchen, and experience nature at its best on the winding, 700-metre trail through Partnach Gorge with its steep rock faces rising up from gushing, green-hued waters; take the rack-railway or cable car up Germany's highest mountain, the almost 3,000-metre Mount Zugspitze, see the golden cross on its summit and take in the extensive views across Garmisch all the way to Munich.

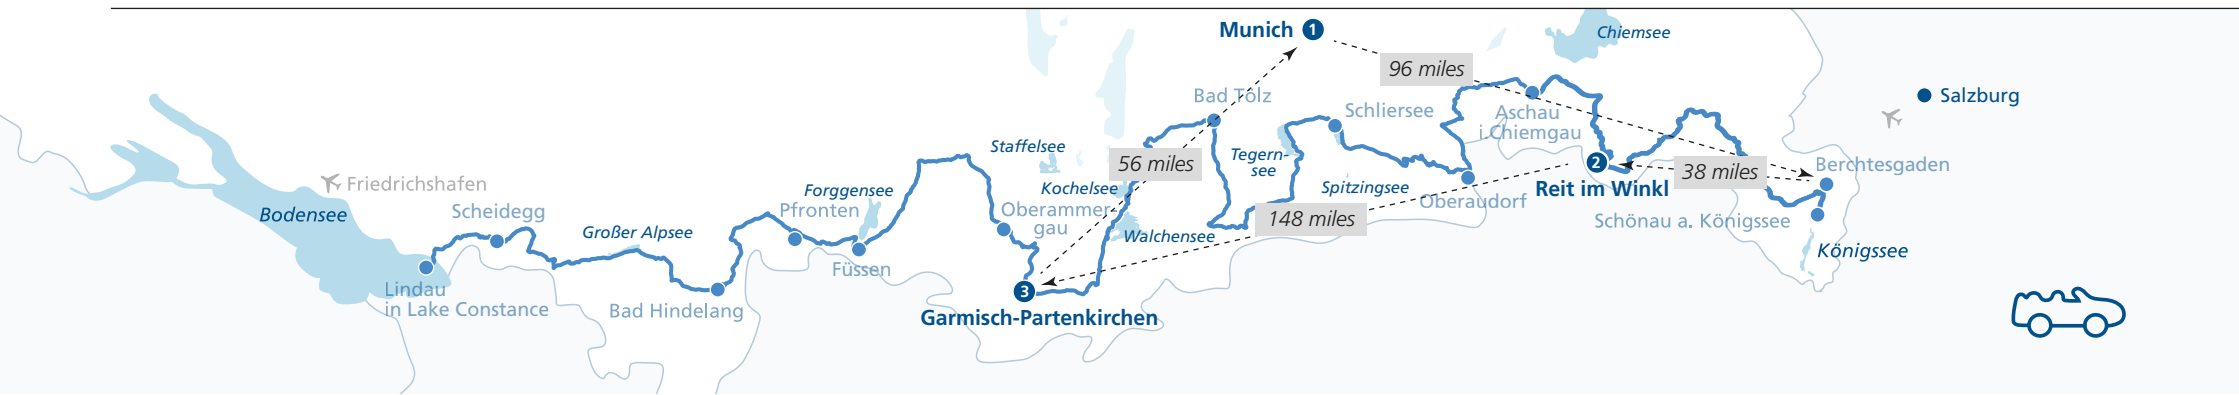

Olympiapark

Reit im Winkl

Cable car "Zugspitze"

Short-trip authentic Bavaria east Booking information

7 days / 6 nights
545 km / 338 miles

Day 1-3 / Munich

Gateway to the German Alpine Road

München Tourismus

Herzog-Wilhelm-Straße 15, 80331 München
+49 (0)89 23396500
www.munich.travel/en

2 overnights

Sightseeing in Munich

Holiday Inn Munich Leuchtenbergring

Leuchtenbergring 20
81677 München
+49 (0)89 1890860
info.lb@himuc.com
www.holidayinn.com

Day 3-5 / Reit im Winkl

Holiday in the mountains

Tourist Info Reit im Winkl

Dorfstraße 38, 83242 Reit im Winkl
+49 (0)8640 80020
www.reitimwinkl.de/en

2 overnights

Relais & Châteaux

Gut Steinbach Hotel Chalets SPA

Steinbachweg 10
83242 Reit im Winkl
+49 (0)8640 8070
info@gutsteinbach.de www.gutsteinbach.de/en

Day 5-7 / Garmisch-Partenkirchen

Alpine holidays at the highest level

Tourist Information Garmisch-Partenkirchen

Richard-Strauss-Platz 2
82467 Garmisch-Partenkirchen
+49 (0)8821 180700; www.gapa.de/en

2 overnights

Nature. Sport. Coziness.

Riessersee Hotel Garmisch-Partenkirchen

Riess 5
82467 Garmisch-Partenkirchen
+49 (0)8821 7580
willkommen@riessersee-hotel.de www.riessersee-hotel.de/en/home

Other experiences along the way:

Obersalzberg Documentation Centre examines the history of Obersalzberg and of the Nazi period.

In Tegernsee, the famous herzogliches Bräustüberl tavern is the perfect place to enjoy a relaxed Bavarian meal; the Tegernsee arcades are the place to browse for typical food and drink.

On a detour to Grossweil, the Glentleiten open-air museum and its 'Refueling on the German Alpine Road' exhibition is well worth a visit.

