

The magic of mountains

7 days / 6 nights
294km / 183 miles

A mix of wonderful walks and dazzling drives along Germany's oldest scenic route.

Sunny 1 Scheidegg in the west of the Allgäu boasts picturesque views over Lake Constance and the Alps.

Nestling at the foot of Mount Zugspitze (2,962m), 2 Garmisch-Partenkirchen is the epitome of dramatic and unspoilt Alpine scenery.

Then it's on to 3 Lake Spitzingsee, via Schliersee, for wonderful walks around the mountain lake.

My travel experiences in ...

1 Scheidegg

A head for heights will come in handy at skywalk allgäu, a barrier-free treetop trail with views of the Alps; the Kappellenweg trail promises a treat for mind and body; and there's an opportunity to cool down in the idyllic Waldsee, Germany's highest moorland swimming lake, near Scheidegg

2 Garmisch-Partenkirchen

The AlpSpIX observation platform offers amazing views of the peaks around Garmisch-Partenkirchen; elsewhere; and there's the opportunity to tour the Olympic ski jump at a height of nearly 150 metres

3 Schliersee-Spitzingsee

Journey back in time to explore old mountain farms and customs at the Markus Wasmeier open-air museum; soak up the sun and the views over a piece of cake at SLYRS coffee & lunchery. Many a peak is waiting to be conquered around Mount Taubenstein and the Rotwand region, quaint mountain inns make for a cosy stop-off, and the Spitzingsee cable car provides a leisurely way to reach the top.
